PIG LENGUA

What is Pig Lengua

If you feel you can't express yourself freely, you need to learn Pig Lengua. Pig Lengua will be the only language in which you will be able to communicate your ideas, opinions, thoughts or emotions with no fear.

Where does Pig Lengua come from

The origins of Pig Lengua come from the mixture of Spanish and English. However, it can be used in many languages by applying one language's pronunciation and spelling to another, French with Spanish pronunciation, Spanish with German pronunciation and so on. This guide teaches the original Pig Lengua, English/Spanish to English Speakers.

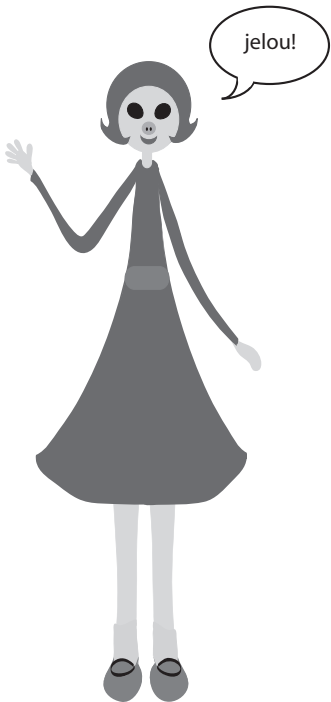

How does Pig Lengua work

Spoken Pig Lengua is different from written Pig Lengua. To speak Pig Lengua all you have to do is apply the pronunciation of Spanish vowels and consonants to the English language. Rules will be explained in detail in a further section.

Ms. PIG ALIEN

Ms. PigAlien is a Pig Lengua native speaker coming directly from Piglandia, a galaxy from the future, to teach us to speak her language.

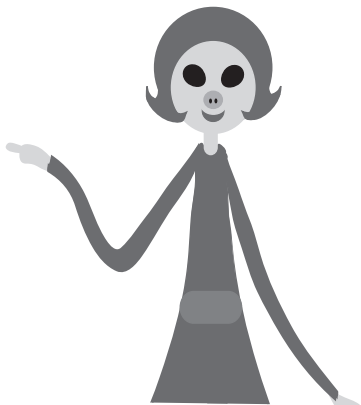

Ms. Pig Alien holds the equivalent of a Ph. D. in Pig Lengua Education and has vast experience teaching throughout the Universe. Due to her tight schedule and numerous professional commitments, she is not able to teach all classes. However, Ms. Pig Alien works with qualified representatives on every galaxy.

SPOKEN PIG LENGUA

As we already stated, Pig Lengua uses the Spanish pronunciation of the English words.

Before moving ahead you should memorize the pronunciation of the Pig Lengua alphabet as numbers and letters in Pig Lengua use the same pronunciation and spelling of the Spanish language.

THE PIG LENGUA ALPHABET

In order to acquire a correct pronunciation it is necessary to memorize the Pig Lengua alphabet. This is very helpful when saying acronyms, plate numbers, addresses and many other words that might contain single letters. The Pig Lengua alphabet has 27 letters. Here it is the entire Pig Lengua alphabet and its corresponding pronunciation:

A ah	B beh	C ceh	D deh	E eh	F ehfeh
G geh	H ahcheh	I ee	J johtah	K kah	L ehleh
M ehmeh	N ehneh	O oh	P peh	Q coo	R ehreh
RR ehrreh	S ehseh	T teh	U oo	V veh	W dohble hoo
X ehquees	Y yeh	Z zehtah

Let's take a closer look at the vowels and some consonants.

The use of vowels: Pig Lengua, has five written and phonetic vowels. In order to acquire fluency in Pig Lengua you will have to memorize the sound of these five vowels:

A... ah as in "march"

E... eh as in "let"

I... ee as in "meet"

O... oh as in "sold"

U... oo as in "troops"

Now read the following words outloud using the Pig Lengua vowels pronunciation:

force

crime

shortage

abuse

justice

The use of consonants: There are some letters and sounds that you will need to know in order to obtain an accurate Pig Lengua pronunciation. Please keep this rules and exceptions in mind:

1. The use of the letter “G”: When in words followed by “e” or “i” as in “gentrification” the “g” should be pronounced as an “h”. When found in words followed by “a”, “o”, “u” or a consonant is pronounced as a regular “g” as in “grief”. When followed by “ue” or “ui” it is also pronounced as a regular “g” as in “guerrilla” and the “u” becomes silent.

Read the following words outloud to practice the “g” sound, try to apply the vowels sound at the same time:

gasoline
guilt
germ
legitimate
gulf
aggravate

2. The use of the letter “H”: “h” in Spanish is mute. However, when following a “c” or “s” it reads as in English. Read the examples outloud. Remeber to follow the rules learned before to improve your skills as you advance:

horror
shot
behead

phallic
chase

3. The use of the letter “J”: The sound of the letter “j” is the English “h” sound. Read aloud:

jungle
injustice
jewish
job
jasper

4. The use of the letter “LL”: The sound of ‘ll’ does not have a specific correspondance in the English language. To simplify its pronunciation just pronounce it as a ‘j’ as in “unjust”. Read the following examples:

allegation
billion
illusion
cell
ill

5. The use of “RR”: Whenever you see a word containing a “rr” just roll your rr’s. This might take some practice but people should be able to understand if you pronounce it as a single “r”. The “rr” sound also applies to words that start with “r”. Practice pronouncing “r” and “rr”r in the following words:

corruption
rich
government
repression
irrelevant

6. The use of the letter “Y”: When found at the beginning of a word sounds also like a “j”. However when found in the middle of the word or at the end it sounds exactly as the vowel “i” which sound is “XXX”. Try to read the following examples:

canyon
destroy
your
security
by

7. The use of the letter “Z”: The “z” is pronounced as an “s”. Read the following words:

hazardous

zone

recongize

zeal

organization

Tips by Ms. Pig Alien:

The Pig Lengua pronunciation is more emphatic than in the English language. Slightly raise your voice when finding some emphasis on a specific syllable.

When asking questions slightly increase the pitch of your voice at the end of the sentence.

WRITTEN PIG LENGUA

In order to write in Pig Lengua you have to spell the English words the way you pronounce them. Example: The word “language” in written Pig Lengua would be spelled “languash”. Most of the words change when written but a few of them will keep the same pronunciation and spelling. There are a few rules for written Pig Lengua:

1. The use of the letter “C”: Just a reminder that you should go by the sound instead of the spelling. See the examples:

archives	arcaivs
question	cuesshon
indecent	indicent
security	sequiurity
especially	espeshaly

2. The use of the letters “QU”: Whenever you are writing a word containing the letters “ca” as in “k” or cu as in “cure” you should write “qu” followed by the appropriate vowels. Let’s look at some examples:

cave
occupation
occasionally

queiv
oquiupeishon
oqueishionaly

3. The use of the letters “TH”: Notice that in some English words “th” is pronounced as a “d” as in “there” that in written Pig Lengua should be “der”. When writing a word containing the “th” sound as in “thousands” keep the original spelling as there is no corresponding sound in Pig Lengua.

A quick test by Ms. Pig Alien: Try translating the following words into written Pig Lengua:
